

CAST YOUR VOTE MY WAY

Jade Benham

SWAN HILL RURAL CITY COUNCIL
DEPUTY MAYOR

"We may not remember what was said, but we will always remember how you made us feel."

The Andrews Government has made regional Victorians feel non-existent time after time after time, and we won't forget that.

The only way to flip the government that has left us feeling this way, is to start flipping seats back to the coalition, and I am dedicated to flipping Mildura back to the Nats.

I want to run for The National Party for the seat of Mildura in the next State election, so I would greatly appreciate your support in what could be a first step.

A little bit about me

I grew up in Swan Hill the daughter of fruit farmers & now also small retail business owners.

Educated at Swan Hill College & starting my career in broadcasting at Ace Radio Swan Hill, I've since worked at Melbourne's Nova 100 & several interstate stations giving me a ready made press network in capital cities & regionally.

During my twenties I travelled the world learning first hand how it works, or in some cases, doesn't work. Living & working in the United States and the United Kingdom certainly gives one a broader perspective on life.

My family & I currently reside just out of Robinvale, where I am the Deputy Mayor for the Swan Hill Rural City Council, a small business owner and the wife of an almond farmer among a myriad of other things including netball umpire, basketballer & swim teacher. Communication & public relations are my talents so I currently use them to host and produce a podcast to act as a kind of surrogate for the people of Robinvale who have not servicing broadcast media dedicated to them in a very long time.
